

Mike Guhl
Chief Information Officer

Mike Guhl serves as Chief Information Officer (CIO) at HD Supply.

Mr. Guhl has more than 25 years of experience in delivering IT solutions - largely in the retail industry. Most recently, he was a Managing Director at Slalom LLC, a consulting firm focused on strategy, technology, and business transformation. His role at Slalom was to manage client relationships and ensure that all projects delivered positive, measurable outcomes for his clients.

Prior to Slalom, Mr. Guhl served as Vice President of IT for The Home Depot Inc. He was responsible for leading IT for more than 2,200 stores across the United States and Canada. He also was responsible for technology support for The Home Depot's credit operations, and the development of multi-channel order management systems.

Mr. Guhl started his IT career as a captain in the U.S. Air Force, working in the electronic combat arena.

He holds a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from Duke University and a master's degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Dayton.
