

INVOLVED WITH OUR COMMUNITIES

AUGUST 2011

LOCAL CLOTHING DRIVES BENEFIT CHARITABLE ORGANIZATIONS ACROSS THE COUNTRY

Associates from HD Supply’s Crown Bolt line of business generously gave to what has become an annual community event. Associates in the company’s Georgia, Tennessee and Pennsylvania distribution centers donated nearly 600 items of clothing for men, women and children to their local Goodwill® Industries.

“We’ve held clothing drives for the past several years and our associates really look forward to them,” said Randy Eller, regional Human Resources manager at Crown Bolt.

“Participating in the drives as a team not only builds camaraderie among our associates, it also makes our donation efforts more significant and, therefore, more impactful to our local communities.”

Associates from the company’s Atlanta, Ga., and Aliso Viejo, Calif., facilities donated more than 200 outfits to Volunteers of America’s Working Wardrobe Community Outreach Program. The program provides business attire and the tools to individuals in need to help them achieve success as they conduct job searches and enter or re-enter into the workforce. The donations included shirts, slacks, dresses, jackets and accessories to create interview-ready, professional attire.

Associates in Crown Bolt’s Stockton, Ca facility participated in the “Cleanliness and Clothing Drive” and donated more than 200 items of clothing and toiletries to benefit the Stockton Shelter for the Homeless. The not-for-profit agency offers shelter and a safe-haven alternative to sleeping on the streets and has facilities for women, men and families.

“Our associates are driven and committed to create opportunities, make connections and address community needs where we — and our customers — live and work,” said Eller.

