

Andrew Liebert
President, Creative Touch Interiors (CTI)

Andrew Liebert is the president of Creative Touch Interiors® (CTI), the leading provider of interior finish solutions to the construction industry. He is charged with growing the CTI business and increasing efficiencies across the organization. Andrew's passion for customer service, coupled with more than 14 years of business experience, are valuable assets that enable him to steer major company initiatives and drive success for CTI, its customers and suppliers.

Andrew joined CTI in 2006 as director of Sales and Marketing. Later that year, he was promoted to regional vice president, and then to vice president of Sales in 2008. Andrew played an integral role in ensuring that HD Supply's separation from The Home Depot was a seamless transition for CTI's customers. Prior to becoming a member of the HD Supply family, Andrew held leadership positions of increasing responsibility at General Electric, where he most recently served as a regional vice president of GE Equipment Services and was responsible for daily operations and sales.

Andrew holds a Bachelor of Science from Indiana University-Purdue University in Ft. Wayne, IN. He and his wife, Brooke, live in Texas with their three children, Andrew Jr., Mary and Ethan.

Creative Touch Interiors is part of HD Supply (www.hdsupply.com), a leading wholesale distribution company, providing a broad range of products and services to professional customers in the infrastructure & energy, maintenance, repair & improvement and specialty construction markets. With a diverse portfolio of market-leading businesses, HD Supply is one of the largest diversified wholesale distributors in North America, with nearly 900 locations.
