

Anesa Chaibi
President, HD Supply Facilities Maintenance

Anesa Chaibi became president of HD Supply Facilities Maintenance_{sm} (then Home Depot Supply MRO), a $1.5-billion business unit, in September 2005. She is chartered with growing the platform organically and aggressively through acquisitions.

In 1989, Anesa started her career with GE in the Chemical and Materials Leadership Program. She held roles of increasing responsibility in Manufacturing, Operations, Production, and Marketing with GE Silicones and GE Plastics. She then left GE in 1995 to obtain her M.B.A. After graduating, she became a strategic management consultant for CSC Index based in Boston, MA.

Anesa returned to GE in 1998 as manager, corporate initiatives working on key global initiatives, including e-Business, e-Learning, Lotus Collaboration Tools, Supplier Quality and Sourcing Six Sigma across all GE businesses. In 2001, she joined GE Power Systems as operations manager for the newly started Digital Energy business. She then became the P&L leader for the Advanced Power Systems business in 2002.

In April 2003, she joined GE Water & Process Technologies as the GM, Global Sourcing and became the GM, Global Sourcing of GE Infrastructure in 2004. Anesa was the GE Water & Process Technologies, Global Six Sigma Quality Leader when she left the company in 2005.

Anesa has a Bachelor of Science in chemical engineering from West Virginia University and an M.B.A. from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University.

HD Supply Facilities Maintenance is part of HD Supply_{sm} (www.hdsupply.com), a leading wholesale distribution company focused solely on serving professional customers in the infrastructure, construction, maintenance, repair and remodel markets. Through a diverse portfolio of market-leading businesses, HD Supply is one of the largest diversified wholesale distributors in North America, with nearly 1,000 locations and more than 24,000 associates.

###