

Margaret (Meg) Newman
Senior Vice President, Human Resources, Marketing and Communications

Meg Newman is currently the senior vice president of Human Resources, Marketing and Communications for HD Supply_{sm}. Since joining HD Supply in April 2007, Meg has led a team through the divestiture from The Home Depot and creation of a new benefits platform and annual enrollment period. She also led a cross-functional team through the finalization of HR systems conversion, and oversaw the creation of new policies and procedures for HD Supply. Additionally, she reorganized the HR team to better align with the new functional structure.

Meg started her career 17 years ago in the manufacturing industry, building her expertise in organizational effectiveness, acquisition and integration, benefits design, talent acquisition and management, leadership development, and employee engagement. Prior to joining HD Supply, Meg held senior HR leadership roles at Conesco Insurance Group and Sears Roebuck and Co.

Meg holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Coe College and master's degree in sociology from the University of Wisconsin.
